

DEBORAH W. CODY

Deborah W. Cody serves as a faculty member in the Department of Nursing. She holds a Master of Science degree in nursing with a clinical specialty in psychiatric nursing and a Bachelor of Science in nursing from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Ms. Cody worked as a clinic nurse for New River Behavioral Healthcare in Boone for three years. Prior to that, she served as assistant professor of nursing at Gardner-Webb University in Statesville and was a part-time nursing administrative supervisor at Wake Forest University/Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem. Ms. Cody also was the clinical nurse manager in psychiatry for NC Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem; the crisis intervention coordinator for Maryview Psychiatric Hospital in Portsmouth, Va; staff development coordinator for Tidewater Psychiatric Institute in Norfolk/Virginia Beach/Chesapeake, Va.; assistant director of nursing for adult services at Portsmouth Psychiatric Center; assistant professor of nursing at the University of South Carolina in Columbia; instructor of nursing at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.

Ms. Cody has also worked as a staff nurse at Gravelly Sanatorium in Chapel Hill, theater nurse for The Lost Colony in Manteo, staff nurse in the medical, surgical and psychiatric units at NC Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, summer camp nurse and has done private duty and temporary staffing.

A member of the Sigma Theta Tau International Nursing Honor Society and the Gardner-Webb University Nursing Honor Society, Ms. Cody was a staff nurse for the 2001-03 Special Operations Response Team, Disaster Health Care Team in Winston-Salem.